ELLEN HENDERSON; PIX & CAPTIONS: BRIAN & PHYLLIS GARRY & ELLEN HENDERSON

On Wed., at the November 6th meeting SHBC hosted our guest speakers Brian and Phyllis Garry, who recently returned from their River Cruising Adventures in Europe along the Danube, Rhine, Main and Moselle Rivers. They were aboard the Viking "Embla", which they personally reserved.

Their 16-day voyage started out in Budapest, Hungary, where they enjoyed the Thermal Bath Soak excursion. Next they were sailing on the Danube River to Vienna, Austria, (Ringstrasse) the Wachau Valley (terraced wine vineyards) & Melk (900 year old Benedictine Abbey).

In Germany they sailed to Passau (Europe's largest pipe organ [17,00 pipes]), Regensburg (city of Marcus Aurelius) & Germany's oldest restaurant (Alte Wurstkuche [Old Sausage Kitchen]) & St. Peter's Cathedral, Nuremberg (2nd largest city in Bavaria), Bamberg (Founded in 902 AD. 574' high Bachhausen Locks), Wurzburg (Romanesque Cathedral) and Wertheim (12th Century Castle) were along the Main-Danube River Canal (106 miles through the rolling hills of North Central Bavaria). Next was the Middle Rhine River (vineyard-blanketed hills & Lorelei Rock [curve in the river]) then Koblenz (confluence of the Rhine & Moselle Rivers & 13th Century Marksburg Castle), Cologne (14th Century Stained Glass Gothic Cathedral).

The last segment of their cruise was to The Netherlands, where they were in Kinderdijk (amazing Windmills, where the Lek & Noord Rivers meet, shaped by the Rhine Delta waters) and Amsterdam (Dutch capital - 90 islands with 1,500 bridges).

The entire trip including airfare was $3,800 per person.

After our regular monthly SHBC Meeting a group convened at THE Safety Harbor Spa for 2 for 1 Appetizer night. Safety Harbor Christmas Parade

HO, HO, HO Mates!!!

Thanks to SHBC's holiday spirit and energy, SHBC signed up to have a float (boat) in the annual Safety Harbor Holiday Parade on December 21st. We need decorators and marchers and spectators to make this a big success. We've got member Cam Carlin's boat, like last year. Treasurer Mark Kanuck is volunteering to tow the boat in the parade. We will double the number of beads to pass out during the parade.

We need decorators to assemble at 10 AM at the Marina parking lot to dress up the boat and make it festive and bright. The parade starts at 1:00 pm. This activity is lots of fun and laughs for everyone.

Please let Dale know if you can help with the decorating at his email address - decuddeback@gmail.com.

Pithlachascotee: The locals call this river the "Cotee". In Miller Bayou before the Hwy 19 Bridge, you'll find "Catches" Restaurant. But the food and the service were delightful. per Annie Davidson (in her Nov. article). She did adore the quiet, silvery morning return out to the Gulf. Gliding past "Stilt Houses of Pasco County" is breath-taking when the sky and the water completely blend at the horizon. That view alone is worth the journey and entices us to return, and to keep exploring Old Florida's Nature Coast.

Please see endorsements below from those on previous "tours":

Per: Michael Kelly:

Come and join us and learn how New Port Richey was the original Hollywood as you view the ornate mansions of the many famous actors that lived here. See the Johnny Cash home and the Ancient Indian Burial Grounds as dolphin swirl around the boat. Be aboard as we follow the sea birds out into the quiet crystal blue waters of the Gulf of Mexico. Here you will enjoy a tour of the historic stilt homes perched on top of the coral and limestone seabed. A quick trip to Durney Key and the "Underwater Beach" leads us to the greatest light show on earth.

Per: Susanne S. - Tampa, Florida

Everyone was able to bring their own food and drink which made for a great party on the water with everyone in the group bringing different snacks and drinks to share. The tour lasts about 2 hours and the guide talks you about the local houses of the famous people that lived in the area and then you go off shore and see these unique and wonderful houses out in the middle of nowhere in the water on stilts. A really great piece of Florida history to see and hear about. Recommend to any age or group.

Per: Jean Tim - Brunswick, OH

Captain Ray and First Mate, Mike, took us on an excellent cruise up and down the Cotee River which was once known as the Hollywood of the South. We took a leisurely trip past 1920-30 era homes of Hollywood stars-Esther Williams, Lucille Ball, Gloria Swanson and many more. Captain Ray would slow down or stop at locations of special interest. Our trip then continued past "millionaire's row" of current day. Personally, it looked more like billionaire's row to me. Then out into the Gulf to see the stilt homes from the early 1900's. There were originally 18 of them, but now 9 remain. The pontoon was comfortable and the price reasonable.

By Dale Cuddeback

Edited by Linda Brandt, Captain S/V Incentive

It was a cold blustery day, this November 16, 2019, and we were all bundled up for a not-to-be-missed chili cook-off and Halloween party. John and Renee Viverito were our gracious hosts and had brought boxes of decorations, boxes of party-ware necessities and such, for our festivities. The party was being held in the pavilion shelters in the Marina Park next to the marina. Ellen and her usual band of table-clothing, shelter corner-post ribbon-wrapping, and place-setting marauders had dived headfirst into the boxes of decorations and then emerged like ants to dispense their bobbles, bangles and bright shining beads. The experienced guests backed-off into the hinterlands surrounding the pavilion so they would not be wrapped in decorations. Someone counted 24 guests swaddled in Alaska type wraps with only noses sticking out. We really needed name tags because noses only weren't much help in identification of who was behind a nose, plus they all resembled Rudolph anyway.

Six chili chefs lined up their crock-pots side by side, proudly displaying their favorite chili receipts, and plugged them into a power-strip. One bystander observed that one of the crockpots did not have an outlet to be plugged in to and was told by it's beaming chef that it wasn't necessary to plug it in, her chili could make ears glow bright red even when cold. The six steaming crockpots seemed to present a double-dog-dare to the attending guests. Dale then remembered that he had left the Bromo-Seltzer in his car, at least he hoped it was there.

Ah, it was great chili tasting weather and we were in for a welcome treat as some of the guests began edging closer to the crockpots. There was turkey chili, chicken chili, beef chili, vegetable chili and smoking chili-chili. The aroma was enticing to say the least. Someone joked it was like gathering around a campfire. John and Renee assigned a number to each crock-pot. The plan was that the guests would take a sample of each chili separately and decide which chili they liked best. They would then write the number on a slip of paper and give the number to the judge to determine first, second and third place winners. Dale readily admits that he voted for his favorite chili (the vegetable chili) twice. Ponder this, who gave Dale the second slip of paper? No one, Dale wrote Linda's number twice on his slip. Linda, who made the vegetable chili, said he could take some home if any was left. (Editor's note: Great way to get votes, by the way. Just offer leftovers!) However, Linda didn't win so Dale figures he'll just have to vote more times next year.

The chili chefs were Diane Hood who won first place, again. Phyllis Garry won second place. Patricia Coyle won third place. The remaining winners were Linda Brandt, Ellen Henderson and Marilyn Mabe. There were no losers, the chilis were all very good. There was also bread, crackers, potato salad and desserts. The delightful chili took the chill out of the air and warmed the guests. By the way, will someone remember to bring air freshener next year?

A new member and delightful woman of Chinese descent whose Chinese name translates as “Rainbow” provided a wonderful Chinese treat. Club members are happy that Rainbow Hee and her husband Marty Bindeman joined the SHBC. Rainbow [, who also won the 50-50, by the way, - Ed.] is just delightful to socialize with and Marty is an accomplished sailor,

After the chili cook-off melee was settled and Bromo-Seltzer passed around, a Zumba dance was held for those who wanted to really warm up more. The leader/coach was Lena Redding who had led the dance event in previous years and graciously accepted when invited to return. Mikey had set up enough equipment to launch a NASA space shuttle and provided music. Dancers were Lena, Ellen Henderson, Patricia Coyle, Rainbow Hee, Nancy Farina and Jill Lunt. Linda took pix.

Then came the biggest laugh of the day. This SHBC party was a combined chili cook-off and the delayed Halloween costume contest, originally canceled due to bad weather. Because of today's cold weather, only four of the guests were brave enough to wear costumes rather than heavy coats. The contestants were four women who lined up, side-by-side, to be judged by other guests. Dale noticed that they were all women with no men and so strolled over and lined up with the contestants. John, who was the MC asked each contestant who they portrayed. [3308] When he came to Dale, Dale replied Paul Newman. The laughter sounded like a jet just buzzed the pavilion. Dale glared around and took names. The contestants were Ellen Henderson as Zumba, Linda Brandt as Miss Chili, Patricia Coyle as Miss Minnesota, Marilyn Mabe as Miss New Zealand, and Paul Newman as Paul Newman. Paul Newman took third place but felt so guilty that he returned the third-place prize to the MC. Rainbow and her husband Marty took pix

This writer may have left out some things but must emphasize that a great time was had by all who braved the weather, which BTW wasn't so bad after a few spoons full of chili.

To: SAFETY HARBOR BOAT CLUB:

We have been invited to the:

Register today for BCYC's 2019 Lighted Christmas Boat Parade on 12/14/2019!

Saturday, December 14th for the 34th Annual BCYC Gulfport Lighted Christmas Boat Parade

Each year, BCYC members and members of the general public come together to spread holiday joy by decking the hulls and heading out on Boca Ciega Bay to parade the BCYC way!

We start at the Gulfport Municipal Marina and pass by the BCYC clubhouse on our way out into the bay. Next, we head to Gulfport's Williams Pier and the beach, passing by the Gulfport Casino. We make our way through the communities of Town Shores, Kipps Colony and the Pasadena Yacht & Country Club, Pasadena Golf Club Estates and Dolphin Boulevard South where holiday parties wait for us to pass by. Lastly, we visit Isla del Sol, then head back to the BCYC clubhouse for the Post Parade party.

But it's about more than fun and merriment. Participants need only a simple fee to enter - two (or more!) unwrapped toys for Operation Santa. Operation Santa, coordinated by the Gulfport police department, collects toys for the children of Gulfport whose holidays would be sadder without the generosity of the community. Boca Ciega Yacht Club is proud to have been part of Operation Santa for 18 years.

In turn BCYC depends on the generosity of our wonderful parade sponsors, who allow us to shower our participants with fun and useful prizes at the end of the parade. Everyone is a winner at this event and no boat goes home empty handed — so you can imagine it takes many generous sponsors to spread the joy around. We would love it if you could support these sponsors when doing your holiday shopping!

If you would like to become a 2019 parade sponsor, contact parade chair Jenn Buckley at (813) 323-5852, or email boatparade@sailbcyc.org.

Entry Fee: Two (or more) unwrapped children's presents OR a check made out to "Operation Santa", the City of Gulfport's annual toy drive.

Prizes: Prizes will be awarded during the Post Parade Party for participating boats. (You must be present to win.)

Post Parade Party: Our Post Parade Party is a potluck party for participating boats and their crew (so bring a dish to share) with holiday drinks, music, singing and BCYC's legendary rendition of the 12 Days of Christmas (hopefully, VERY off-key!)
